

GOOD OLE BOY PRODUCTIONS PRESENTS

MIKE HUBBARD

AS the GRAFTMASTER

Watch in horror
as he turns the Loveliest Village into his own personal cash cow!

The critics are unanimous!

"In 2002, Graftmaster Mike Hubbard and his Auburn trustee friends, Lowell Barron and John Blackwell, play behind the scenes to strong-arm Auburn University into giving up the rights to Auburn sports media, costing the University millions of $$$$!"

http://www.auburn.edu/administration/univrel/news/archive/07_02news/07_02trustees.html

"Buddy Mitchell, Auburn University lobbyist, is so moved by the Graftmaster's crying and begging he hands over the sealed bids from Hubbard's competitors for Auburn sports media rights. The Graftmaster now had the goods, and ripped the University off for millions more."

<http://www.alreporter.com/in-case-you-missed-it/4371-anatomy-of-a-rigged-bid.html>

"Graftmaster Mike Hubbard keeps his friends close and his enemies closer in this game of power and money. He plays the loving son to his beloved Auburn University, all the while sucking the life out of its bank account. Is Auburn the Graftmaster's friend or patsy? See this riveting portrait of a villain willing to do anything for a buck."

<http://www.thetuskegenews.com/articles/2010/10/28/opinion/doc4cc8753903ed9709148896.tz>

"Graftmaster Mike Hubbard is a great actor in a really bad movie."

Paid for by Foundation for Education Accountability
P.O. Box 1874
Carrollton, GA 30112

